

A Note on Guidelines & Responsibilities

As you step into serving our community, we want to make sure you feel fully equipped and protected. Please take a moment to review our full Disclaimer and Policies page at amplifythekingdom.com/policies — it covers everything you need to know about operating as a leader within the Amplify the Kingdom ecosystem.

A few important reminders as you begin:

You are an independent leader. As a Kingdom Catalyst, you operate independently and are solely responsible for your own actions, conduct, and interactions with members of the Amplify the Kingdom community. We are here to support and resource you — but the nature of your services, your client relationships, and the boundaries you maintain are entirely your own responsibility.

We do not diagnose. Neither Amplify the Kingdom nor its leaders provide medical, psychiatric, or clinical diagnoses of any kind. If someone you are serving appears to need professional medical or mental health care, please refer them to a licensed professional.

In any emergency, act immediately. If you or someone you are working with is in crisis or immediate danger, please do not wait — refer them to emergency services right away.
